

Dear Mom and Dad,

I am fine. How are you? I wrote you a letter last week– did you get it?

I had a good time this week at Camp Sissimanunu. On Monday, during a nature walk, Stinky and I turned over a log and found all kinds of bugs. On Tuesday, we learned to paddle canoes on the lake. On Wednesday, we saw a big bear walking down by the stream! And on Wednesday night, we saw Ursa Major! Ha, ha! On Thursday, it rained, so we mostly stayed inside and read and cleaned our cabins. Yesterday, Friday, Stinky and I had kitchen duty, so we had to get up in the dark(!) and help make pancakes for the whole camp.

I miss you and am looking forward to seeing you in three weeks when camp is over.
Don't let Becky go into my room while I am here!!!!

Love,
Andy
Your son
